PREFATORY NOTE

The earliest printed catalogue of Yale graduates was a list appended to the Commencement Theses in 1714, of which no copy is known to be extant. A fragment of a similar broadside for 1718 is preserved; and with 1724 begins the series of separate Catalogues, published triennially. The form of the edition was changed from a broadside to a pamphlet in 1781. Before 1892 the catalogues were printed in Latin.

Until the death of President Stiles (in 1795) the President of the College seems to have been the responsible editor of the publication; but on the establishment of a professorship of ancient languages (in 1805) the incumbent of that chair (Professor Kingsley) assumed the duty. As Professor Kingsley advanced in years, Mr. Herrick, the Librarian, relieved him,—the Catalogues after 1844 being wholly prepared by Mr. Herrick. On Mr. Herrick's death in 1862, the editorship reverted to Professor Thacher, Mr. Kingsley's successor in the Latin chair; and at Professor Thacher's request in 1873 it was transferred to the Secretary of the Corporation, who had already assisted in the preparation of all the catalogues issued since Mr. Herrick's death.

The abbreviations employed are those in customary use; as in all the issues since 1745, the names of ordained ministers of the gospel are printed in italics.
